

Arca Capital prepares an expansion to Vienna with its food market chain Delia

September 26th 2019 – Prague

The fresh food market chain Delia of Arca Capital financial group plans expansion to Vienna. It intends to open a café in the Donau Zentrum shopping center at the turn of the year. Another one shall follow in 2020 in Shopping City Süd. "We acquired attractive spaces on favourable conditions. Given the purchasing potential of Vienna, it is highly financially interesting," stated Rastislav Velič, chair of Arca Capital's managing board. He did not rule out further business activities in the Austrian capital in the future.

We also present the visualization of the planned café in Donau Zentrum below.
